DRAFT RETURNS COME IN SLOWLY

Prevent Anything Approaching Conclusive Estimate

HALF CLAIM EXEMPTION

Census Bureau's Estimate of 10,200,000 Between Fixed Aged Will Not Be Equaled

BAKER ENTHUSIASTIC

BULLETIN.
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Seven states and the District of Columbia had made complete reports on Tuesday's war registration showing 8,640,707 men registered, compared with the census estimate of their aggregate quota of 8,489,917 when the provost marshal general's office closed tonight.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Registration returns came in slowly today and tonight from Tuesday's military census, preventing anything approaching a conclusive estimate as to the number of men actually enrolled. An official statement today, however, said that the 10,200,000 estimate of the census bureau for the number of men with the prescribed ages would not be equalled.

A feature of the few complete returns is high percentage of the indicated exemption, averaging approximately fifty per cent of the total registration. Officials pointed out, however, that this did not mean actual exemptions, as the figures include all married men and those in executive, judicial or legislative office. Until exemption regulations have been promulgated it will be impossible to say how many of those will be included in those to be marked off the military rolls.

The one conclusive result of the registration that cannot be altered in the slightest degree by any possible variation from the estimates is that millions of young Americans have put in their names, claiming no exemption from war service.

To Take Up Individual Cases.
In regard to the married men, Secretary Baker said today that in all the letters he has received on the subject of exemption, not one even suggested that marriage should establish a class exemption. He added that it was not the purpose of the department to make such a ruling, but that individual cases would be dealt with on their merits.

The secretary was enthusiastic over the results of registration, declaring the day had been a spectacular demonstration of the solidarity of the American people and of their high patriotism.

Mr. Baker thinks it will be some time before the regulations governing exemption are issued, as they have not yet been worked out fully. The complete working out of these regulations and the appointment of exemption boards the secretary said will precede the issuance of regulations to govern the selection of men for examination.

Exemption boards will be localized as much as possible to make it easy for selected men to get to the place of examination without interfering with their regular occupations.

Figures Show Falling Off.
Officials generally said tonight the fact that the few states which had sent in their complete figures at a late hour showed with two exceptions falling off from census estimates for total registration should not be taken as indicating any great number of evasions. All reports from department of justice agents and others tended on the contrary to show that there was a surprisingly small number of skulkers. Total figures for seven states and the district of Columbia showed approximately 32,500 below the census ratio. Should that average hold for all the states; it would mean a total decrease of about 200,000. The army, navy, marine corps and the national guard, included the population figures upon which the census estimate were based would move them off the decrease.

Representative Park of Georgia sought further legal measures today to deal with slackers, in a bill introduced in the house he proposed that men who failed to register be disfranchised for the duration of the war. Additional requests for registration cards were received today from several consuls and the shipments were made promptly.

EXTEND BOYS' WORKING RESERVE

Washington, June 7.—The United States Boys' Working Reserve organized by the department of labor, has been extended, it was announced today to 21 states. In New York state already five thousand boys of the reserve are engaged in farm work. They have been put on the farms under adult leaders and are camping in tents, school houses and barns.

REPORT IMPROVEMENT IN RUSSIAN SITUATION

Despatches Tell of Stricter Discipline in the Army

Official Reports of Encouraging Improvement Assumed to be Result of Efforts of Minister of War Kerensky Who Has Been Touring the Fronts.

Washington, June 7.—Encouraging improvement in the Russian situation was reported in official dispatches today telling of stricter discipline in the army, which was seriously threatened by the political upheaval and the sweeping away of all caste. This is assumed to be a result of the efforts of Minister of War Kerensky, who has been touring the fronts.

Official Reports More Optimistic.
Official reports from Russia always have been more optimistic than press dispatches and consistently have scouted the idea of a separate peace. This has upheld confidence among state department officials who hope the revolution, throwing the allied offensives on the Belgian, French and Italian fronts entirely out of gear, in the end would prove one of democracy's great triumphs of the war.

The great effort here now is to be friendly and sympathetic toward the provisional authorities at Petrograd rather than distrustful and intrusive. The government has adopted a firm policy of not allowing the slightest suspicion to arise that it is trying to interfere in the international affairs of Russia, while at the same time standing ready and anxious to be of all aid possible.

Prompt settlement of the Kronstadt trouble has strengthened the belief that Russia will find its own way out. Reports at present, officials indicate, are out of perspective as they center largely on the sensational and upon Petrograd, without much consideration of the great Russia outside.

The anti-annexation, anti-indemnity program of the Council of Workmen and Soldiers' delegates it not literally interpreted as opposing territorial readjustments in the spirit of self-government and national government which the Russians themselves proclaim they are fighting for.

Must Negotiate Questions.
It is not thought for instance, that Russia would restore to the Turk the great province of Armenia, or object to the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine and Italia Iredenta. Other questions as to the Balkans, the Dalmatian coast and the German colonies are considered so controversial that they can be worked out only by negotiation.

Consequently it is felt in official quarters there that while at first sight the Russian program appears to be in conflict with the readjustments desired by the allies a detailed examination shows it not to be so in spite of insidious workings of a German propaganda to create a chasm.

ADVERTISING CLUBS CLOSE CONVENTION

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 7.—The annual convention of the Associated Advertising clubs of the world closed a four day session here this afternoon after electing officers, choosing San Francisco as the meeting place in 1918 and listening to an address by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo on the liberty loan.

At one of the sessions today, President Houston read a list of 52 products the cost of which to the consumer has remained unchanged despite a great increase in the cost of production. This unchanged price he attributed to the wider market obtained by advertising men.

Trophies were awarded as follows:
To the Minneapolis Advertising Club—The Printers Ink Trophy, for the most constructive work of the year.

To the Kansas City Advertising Club—The "Baltimore" trophy for work in behalf of truth in advertising.

To the Joplin Advertising Club—The "Kalamazoo" trophy for the best work for truth in a city of less than 50,000 population.

FABUS RIVER WEST OF QUINCY STILL RISING

QUINCY, Ill., June 7.—The Fabus river, seven miles west of Quincy, continued to rise today. The flood waters of the Des Moines river also caused the Mississippi river to go higher, but thus far no levees along the Mississippi river have broken.

In the Fabus drainage district, flooded yesterday, it is estimated that the crop damage will amount to three quarters of a million dollars.

As far as could be ascertained today no lives have been lost.

The water covers 18,000 acres, seven miles wide.

HOLD FARMER FOR FAILING TO REGISTER

Des Moines, Ia., June 7.—Pleading guilty to a charge of "willfully evading registration" John M. Jenkins, a farmer residing near here, was held to the federal grand jury late today and committed to jail in default of $5,000 bond. This is the first anti-registration prosecution in the southern Iowa division of the federal court.

COMMISSION ISSUES ORDER.

Washington, June 7.—The federal trade commission today issued an order requiring the A. B. Dick company of Chicago to cease placing licensing restrictions on its mimeographing requiring purchasers to use only certain supplies manufactured by the Dick company or one of its subsidiaries.

BRITISH LAUNCH GIGANTIC ATTACK

Fighting Assumes a Form at Once Effective and Terrible to Contemplate

MINE GERMAN POSITIONS

Discharge of Million Pounds of High Explosives Spreads Panic Among Germans

TAKE MANY PRISONERS

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS in France, June 7.—via London.—From an Associated Press correspondent.—Using at least twenty per cent more heavy field artillery than was used in the battle of Arras, and discharging one million pounds of high explosives under the German forward positions, the fighting of the British forces today assumed a form at once effective and terrible to contemplate.

The mining operations—the most gigantic of any in the history of warfare—spread panic among the Germans to whom the attack came as a surprise and who were rendered incapable of reforming promptly.

British Tanks Puke Death.
Then, while confusion still reigned in the Teutonic ranks, came on the deadly British tanks pinking death and destruction at every turn of the broad fired wheels. The attack began today, two months after the offensive campaign burst into flame at Arras, was carried out in that slender strip of Belgium, saved nearly three years ago from the German invasion. The blow was struck on a front of approximately ten miles against the high ground known as the Messines ridge, from which the Germans have overlooked the British lines ever since October, 1914.

Not long after the battle began word came from all sectors of the fighting front that the various objectives had been taken on scheduled time. Many prisoners were taken.

Surprised by Hour of Attack.
All the prisoners say the Germans had been expecting the attack but were taken completely by surprise by the hour at which it was launched and the fury with which it was carried forward.

More than one million pounds of high explosives had been placed under the German forward positions during the last 12 months and the upheaval of a score of separate mines spread panic among the troops already harassed as they were to the point of distraction by seven days and nights of fire from the greatest concentration of guns on a given front since the war began.

The Messines ridge long has been a thorn in the side of the British. They were driven from it in those perilous days of October 1914 when, with weak lines and virtually no artillery, they bravely but forlornly attempted to hold this point of vantage.

If all of today's gains are held the pressure on Ypres which has resisted every effort of the Germans, will be effectually relieved. Not much is left of Ypres but its crumbling walls and brick dust, but the British have held it as the last important landmark which survived in the little kingdom overrun by the Germans in their mad dash against France.

Regard Ridge as Key.
The Messines ridge has been regarded as a sort of key position to all the northern sector of the western front, and in that way more important than Vimy ridge itself, only about half as high.

The remainder of the country about Messines is so flat that this sloping ridge, which attains a maximum height of only 75 meters, commands the country for miles around and affords its possessor direct observation.

The British observed that observation this morning with one of the most effective smoke barrages ever set up. The attack came at dawn with the full moon still high in the heavens. Mine explosions were the signals for the turning on of all the guns which were employed in dropping a curtain of fire that swept before the British attacking units. Meanwhile other guns were hurling high explosive shells against the German communications while still others were spraying the German batteries with a deluge of gas shells.

German Guns Silenced

As the result of this artillery cooperation the German guns were effectually silenced during the initial stages of the attack and the British casualties were subsequently light. It was not long after the battle started that Messines village was reported captured. Then came word that Lenfre and Zaree-Tia (Zareeba) had fallen and that Wytschaete in the very nose of the German salient just south of the Ypres salient, was being surrounded.

The tanks were in the thick of the fighting. The troops fighting today were English, Irish, New Zealanders and Australian.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

In one of the most elaborately planned and daringly executed maneuvers of the war, Sir Douglas Haig's forces have dealt a mighty blow against the German line in Belgium and has been rewarded with notable gains in terrain and the capture of more than five thousand prisoners with numerous guns. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans while the British losses were comparatively small. Over a front of more than nine miles, extending from the region of Ypres southward nearly to Armentieres, the British started their drive early Thursday morning and by night had captured villages and numerous points of vantage, among the latter the Messines-Wytschaete ridge, which commands the surrounding plains for miles.

The villages of Messines and Wytschaete came into British hands of the British and the British pressed on eastward from Wytschaete and occupied the village of Oosttaverne and trenches east of the village on a front of more than five miles.

Probably never in history was an attack launched with greater preparation. For days the Wytschaete salient had been the objective of the British guns which had hurled tons of steel upon it. When the time for the attack came the British loaded mines containing one million pounds of high explosives in front of the German positions, the detonations being heard 130 miles away in England.

With consternation reigning among the Germans and under a curtain of fire, English, Irish, New Zealand and Australian infantrymen with "tanks" to aid them, started across the open. The Germans offered only slight resistance and everywhere were beaten off, even in the late afternoon when they had somewhat regained their composure and attempted a counter-attack near the southern end of the line. This latter was broken up by the British artillery fire. Except for a German attack against the French northwest of St. Quentin which the French troops repulsed, quiet prevailed everywhere on the French front Thursday except along the Chemin des Dames, where the artillery activity was violent.

Considerable fighting continues between the Austrians and Italians in the Carso region. Along the Vipacco Valley the Italians delivered several thrusts which were repulsed, while near Jamiano the Austrians have made further gains, asserting that the Austrian attacks failed in the latter region as likewise did an offensive in force on the Trentino front.

Great preparations are being made in France for the arrival of American troops. Already American transport containing food for them has arrived in a French port and American warships are at anchor off the French coast. Camps have been prepared for all branches of the American forces which are expected.

PROPORTION OF U-BOATS SUNK HAS INCREASED

PARIS, June 7.—Rear Admiral Lacaze, minister of marine, announced in the chamber of deputies today that the proportion of submarines sunk has increased markedly, adding:

"We are employing a very efficient method and we are able to see the possibility of developing this method so as to render it more efficacious."

The minister said Germany had announced a blockade and had fixed a certain date. The result had been that the allies were not blockaded, their ships had gone whither it was necessary to go. Admiral Lacaze took occasion to reply to certain criticism on the navy and concerning the loss of various ships.

Eighteen hundred voyages, he said, had been made by cruisers between Algeria and France, and only the Medjerda had been sunk.

HEAR EXPLOSIONS OF MINES IN LONDON

LONDON, June 7.—The tremendous explosions which opened the British attack on Wytschaete bend were heard by David Lloyd George, the British premier who was staying for the night at his residence, Wait-on Heath.

The premier and other members of the household clearly heard the tremendous detonations, as also did persons at the premier's official residence in London, who supposed they were the sounds of heavy guns until later they learned from the despatches that they came from the explosion of mines.

From London to the region where the British mines were exploded along the German front the distance ranges from 130 to 140 miles.

FRUSTRATE ATTEMPTED PEORIA JAIL DELIVERY

PEORIA, Ill., June 7.—An attempted jail delivery was frustrated here today when prisoners of the Peoria county jail were caught in the act of tunneling thru the old jail.

A new jail is nearing completion and workmen in the new building, adjoining the old one, in pounding on the floors made it possible for the prisoners to work with little difficulty. According to Sheriff Lucas Butts, 38 prisoners are involved in the plot. None of the prisoners escaped.

CONFEDERATES ELECT.

Washington, June 7.—The United Confederate veterans here today re-elected General George P. Harrison of Opelika, Ala., commander-in-chief and selected Tulsa, Okla., as the place for the next annual reunion.

CHARGE GOETHALS HALTS BUILDING

Differences Over Government Ship Building Program Come to Head

ISSUE TWO STATEMENTS

Eustis and Clark Say Corporation Has Received Offers of 496 Wooden Ships in Year

CLARK EVPLAINS TANGLE

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Differences over the government's wooden shipbuilding program came to a head tonight when F. A. Eustis, assistant general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, and his assistant, F. Huntington Clark, issued statements, virtually charging Major George W. Goethals, general manager of the corporation, with halting building of the vessels by prescribing an impossible form of contract.

The statements reveal that the fleet corporation has just received orders from ten firms to build 496 wooden ships within twelve months or 786 within 18 months. General Goethals has turned the proposals down because the builders wish to construct the ships on a cost-plus-percentage profit basis instead of contracting for a flat price.

Originated Wooden Ship Plan.
Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are the engineers who originated the wooden ship plan adopted by the shipping board and regarded by General Goethals as impracticable. When the board formed the fleet corporation and put General Goethals at its head with full power to build ships the two engineers were assigned to the corporation as the general's aides.

After taking charge of the building program General Goethals turned to steel construction and limited the wooden program to not more than 250 ships in 18 months. Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark contend the corporation can build 2,000 wooden ships within that time without interfering with steel building.

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are serving the fleet corporation without pay. Both indicated tonight they expected their resignations would be asked but declared they felt it to be their duty to put the situation before the American people and show that ships can be built to overcome the German submarine campaign. Mr. Clark explained tonight the tangle over commitments for wooden ships. When first employed he and Mr. Eustis, he said, directed some ship building companies to go ahead with the fleet corporation without pay. Both indicated tonight they expected their resignations would be asked but declared they felt it to be their duty to put the situation before the American people and show that ships can be built to overcome the German submarine campaign. Mr. Clark explained tonight the tangle over commitments for wooden ships. Both indicated tonight they expected their resignations would be asked but declared they felt it to be their duty to put the situation before the American people and show that ships can be built to overcome the German submarine campaign.

Clark's Statement.

Clark's statement says in part: "As far as we can learn the present program contemplates about 2,000 tons of shipping in 18 months. This amount was sunk in the first four months of this year and the shortage is already appalling. The wooden ship program has been cut to about one-fifth of its original; so apparently to make room for steel ships. It is possible to build of wood two million tons more than are at present contemplated without in the slightest degree interfering with the steel construction. A crisis in shipping will arise about December and our success depends on our ability to begin to produce ships by that time. Very few steel ships can be produced in time. The early ships will be the wooden ships and they may decide the issue."

"Even if we build all the wooden ships we can, in addition to the steel, we can only hope for a total of five million tons in 18 months. This is not nearly enough. In deliberately neglecting 2,000,000 tons of wooden ships we are taking terrible chances. The construction of wooden ships has been limited in many ways. The standard design is difficult to build, requires a high percentage of skilled ship carpenters, large timbers and much hand labor. This ship is too large for the Welland Canal Locks, eliminating a large number of ships which could be built in the great lakes. Many of the old Maine builders are willing to build a slightly different ship than the standard design but will not build the standard as it represents a radical departure from their established practice."

Have Another Design.
"We have another design which could be built much more easily, and much more rapidly—which has been accepted by the American bureau of shipping and by Mr. Ferris, the board's consulting architect, and which many builders prefer."

"The original form of contract called for payment on the basis of cost plus a flat fee. This is the form used by the Canadian government and by our own navy. The present policy is to insist on contracts on a

WRITE NEW STAMP TAXES INTO WAR REVENUE BILL

Proposal Would Raise from Eight to Ten Million Dollars

Would Require Persons Drawing Checks and Drafts for More Than $5 to Affix the Stamps so Familiar During the Spanish-American War

Washington, June 7.—New stamp taxes of two cents on bank checks and drafts of more than $5, to raise from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 were written into the war tax bill today by the senate finance committee. The provisions would require persons drawing checks and drafts for more than $5 to affix the stamps so familiar during the Spanish-American war.

All other documentary stamp taxes of the house bill, estimated to raise $33,000,000 were adopted except those on surety and indemnity bonds.

The committee decided to reduce the house tax of eight cents a pack on playing cards to three cents for decks costing under fifteen cents. Consumption taxes on sugar, coffee, tea and cocoa were fixed finally as previously announced after reconsideration, except that the rate on raw cocoa was reduced to 3 cents a pound and that on prepared cocoa and products increased to five cents. The sugar tax of 1-2c a pound, two cents on coffee and five cents on tea will stand.

Reconsideration of the proposed repeal of the law giving sugar refiners "drawback" allowances on exports was discussed today, but a decision was postponed.

Many other problems previously decided also were re-considered and debated at length, including the tax on newspapers, magazines and other publications. Final settlement of the publisher's tax and possibly other important questions is looked for tomorrow. Both the income and excise profits taxes remain to be fixed. Senator Simmons said he adhered to his former estimate that the committee probably will complete the revised bill with an aggregate tax levy of around $1,500,000,000, on Saturday and present it to the senate about the middle of next week.

SILVERSHILL BATTLES WITH SUBMARINE

Ship is One Referred to in State Department—Consider Promotion of Gun Crew Commander

PARIS, June 7.—The American steamer Silvershell has had a battle with a submarine in the Mediterranean. After an exchange of sixty shots the submarine disappeared.

Ship Referred to in Statement.
Washington, June 7.—The Silvershell is the steamer referred to in yesterday's state department announcement as having sunk a German submarine after an exchange of sixty shots in a running fight of an hour and a half.

The state department did not announce the name of the steamer because it has been this government's policy not to disclose the names of ships having engagements with submarines.

Consider Promotion for Clark.
William I. Clark, of New York, a warrant officer from the battleship Arkansas commanded the armed guard aboard the American Steamer Silvershell, which sank a German submarine in the Mediterranean.

"It was a splendid piece of work," Secretary Daniels said today, "and we are now considering promotion for Clark who well deserves it."

BEGIN PROBE OF RECENT RACE RIOTS

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., June 7.—President Walker of the Illinois Federation of Labor and John H. Harrison of Danville, member of the Illinois state committee of defense, today began an inquiry into the recent race riots here.

Mayor Mollman testified that in the last six months from 3,000 to 6,000 negroes have settled in East St. Louis and in some instances have taken the places of white factory workers. This, he said, he considered the cause of the recent riots.

Maurice Joyce, vice president of the East St. Louis chamber of commerce testified that two weeks ago he introduced before the chamber of commerce a resolution calling for an investigation of the influx of negroes. The resolution was tabled, he said, and this, he thought was due to the influence of certain business interests that were encouraging the immigration of negroes.

ROUMANIA READY TO RESUME FIGHTING

PARIS, June 7.—Roumania has re-organized her army and is ready to resume the fight, according to a statement made by Premier Bratianu in an interview with the Petrograd correspondent of the Parisian.

The Roumanian premier said: "My country is keeping its promises under the most difficult circumstances. It has been invaded by an enemy superior in numbers. It has lost its capital and more than half of its territory; it has suffered famine and disease but it has made a great and manly effort to re-organize its army and it has never given up the struggle. Today Roumania is ready to resume the fight, its army is perfectly trained and it has material such as it never had before."

U.S. FOOD TRANSPORT REACHES FRANCE

Ship Carries Supplies for Troops of Pershing's Expedition

UNLOADING TRANSPORT

Preparations are Being Made for the Reception of the American Troops

CAMPS ARE LAID OUT

PARIS, June 7.—A large American transport containing wheat for American troops which are to come later has crossed the Atlantic under the protection of an American warship—the Matin announced. The transport is now being unloaded at a French port, the newspaper says.

Preparations are being made for the reception of American troops, the newspaper says further. A number of bases similar to those of the British army have been organized. Camps have been laid out for infantry and artillery and aviation parks have been established for American aviators.

None of the American officers is bringing his family. The Matin says the arrival of the transport means that the provisioning of the army is well under way before the arrival of the troops and that accordingly the American forces will make no call on the French stock of food.

Warships Off France

Paris, June 6.—The ministry of marine announced tonight that American warships have anchored off the French coast.

The French navy greets with joy on their arrival here new brothers in arms who under the flag of the great American Republic, have come to participate until final victory in the struggle against the common enemy.

Daniels Makes Announcement

Washington, June 7.—The naval collier Jupiter has arrived in France, Secretary Daniels announced today, laden with 10,500 tons of wheat and other supplies. The ship sailed from an American port without any intimation of her voyage having been given out in advance and is now at anchor in a French port.

The Jupiter is one of the navy's largest colliers. She was the first electrically propelled steamer ever built and her performance was so good that it led to the adoption of electric drive for all new battleships and battle cruisers, the American navy being the only one in the world to adopt this type of propulsion. Secretary Daniels did not specify what supplies the big ship carried.

BETTER THAN THE ADAMSON LAW

Russian workers in metal factories have gone the trainmen in this country race in that they have resisted a 6-hour day. The present government in Russia yielded to the demands of the factory workers in regard to the hours of labor as well as in some other matters and thus avoided a strike. The workmen chose a time for a strike demonstration when they were pretty sure of getting anything for which they asked.

MORE JOBS FOR WOMEN

Springfield railroads are already giving an indication of the widened sphere of women workers which will come with war times. As is known, many of the great railroads have for months been training women to take clerical positions in their offices which they expect to be vacated by men who will be called into war service. The B. & O. S. W. in Springfield has widened this training plan and has appointed two women to serve at railroad crossings as "flagwomen."

This is merely a beginning for the railroads and other employing companies will find places for women which in the past have supposedly been the private property of their male relatives. In this way women in the U. S. just as in England and France, will be able to do a patriotic service. They are supporting themselves and dependent relatives and can release needed men for actual war service.

SUPPORTING THE PRESIDENT

It is worthy of note that President Wilson in his present war policy is receiving the earnest support of former President Taft and former President Roosevelt. The latter is giving his support notwithstanding the disappointment in having his volunteer army proposal turned down. The records show also how heartily Charles E. Hughes, who was President Wilson's opponent in the election, is supporting him.

The action of these Republicans is quite in contrast to the course being followed by a number of Democratic leaders in congress—men who from political and patriotic reasons it might be assumed would support the president heartily in his war program, instead are blocking the administration in various irritating ways. In fact, it has been one of the outstanding features of the present session of congress that most of the trouble President Wilson has had has come from his own party.

Let us hope that as a result of this condition later on the president will show less partisanship in the handling of some government affairs, and that he will accord to Republicans some courtesies that have been withheld in the past.

PROTECTING GRAIN FIELDS

When the U. S. government began the guarding of all railroad bridges a few months ago there were many citizens who deemed these precautions useless and in fact wondered by what stretch of the imagination it had been conceived that Germany would seek out a railroad bridge and destroy our railroad bridges and thus paralyze railroad traffic and stop war preparations. But only a few days since direct evidence was found of a plot to blow up the bridge at Quincy and no doubt the government has had facts of a like kind from a great many other localities. When thought is given to the matter it can readily be seen that there are scores of ways by which Germany can seek to cripple this country unless America take precautions. The Providence Journal points out one of these in the suggestion that care must be taken to guard the fields at harvest time. The Journal said:

"Protection of the grain fields is one of the most important duties of the country. Fire must be guarded against—a few paid enemy agents could do much mischief. In Cuba, Germany planned the destruction of the cane fields by fire to the end that the sugar supply of the allies might be reduced. Grain fields just before harvesting time are peculiarly exposed to attack by German fomenters of destruction. No chances should be taken in the wheat states. Everyone who cannot give a good account of himself should be put where he can do no damage to the food supplies of the country."

THE FOURTH OF JULY IS APPROACHING

Our national birthday is near at hand and the question of its celebration is before the people. Our country is facing a grave crisis and it behooves every resident of the United States to do all possible to keep burning the fires of patriotism. No matter what the opinions of any person may be regarding the war, it is upon us, has been duly declared by congress and the president and every one residing in the land should respond cheerfully to the call in any way possible.

In addition to the usual program there should be numbers especially patriotic on this occasion. Fireworks are all right and the small boy as well as the great mass of the people should enjoy that exhibition but in addition there should be addresses, songs and patriotic numbers such as will arouse the proper feeling in every breast and show that we are in earnest in supporting the government most heartily in the prosecution of the war.

In this connection there are two main propositions—

First: this nation has no right to sit by and see democracy crushed by a relentless power in the old world.

Second: as a matter of self preservation we should aid. Should Germany win she would have Canada on the north of us and all too soon Mexico on the south and—

IN BOLD CONTRAST

The St. Louis Globe Democrat has quoted history to show in how strong contrast conscription day in 1917 stood by comparison with the war draft of 1863. In those earlier days there was mob violence and blood shed while in 1917 with millions more citizens affected the cases of resistance were few and isolated. The Globe draws the comparison in this way:

"With all the vigilance of the most efficient news-gathering agency the world has ever seen, it was possible to find only the most isolated instances of resistance to the draft in a nation of 100,000,000 people. The fact speaks volumes for the patriotism and self-restraint of Americans, but no small part of the credit belongs to the attitude of the press and the stand of prominent people. It was not so in the civil war draft in 1863. Partisanship had assailed the draft in Congress and through the press. The New York Daily Journal of Commerce, the World and the Daily News bitterly fought the administration, and especially assailed the draft as 'an illegal and despotic measure.' In several places enrollment officers were attacked and one or two were assassinated. Gov. Seymour of New York, who was unreasonably partisan, was quoted as declaring that neither the president nor Congress, without the consent of the state authorities, had a right to force a single individual against his will 'to take part in the ungodly conflict which is distracting to this land.' A charge that the Republicans were trying 'to kill off Democrats and stuff the ballot boxes with bogus soldier votes' was made by the most virulent newspaper."

"The whirlwind of such sowing was reaped on July 13 in New York City, when a mob, composed chiefly of foreign-born residents, attacked the office of the Enrollment Board and then set it afire. The mob took possession of the hydrants and rendered firemen powerless to check the flames. For three days the mob wrought ruin and desolation and order was not restored until troops that had been at Gettysburg arrived in large number. Gov. Seymour estimated the number of killed and wounded at 1000."

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

Be Ready

We can't conduct a modern war—the kind that we've been planning for—without abundance of long green; therefore, go slow on gasoline, and luxuries of every sort; quit drinking grape juice by the quart, quit eating pie three times a day, and idly throwing coin away. For soon you'll face a heavy tax that will put stitches in your backs, and freeze your gay and winning smile, unless you've laid away a pile. We cannot run a modern war, and push the kaiser off the map, that butcher who too long hath sinned—we cannot do him up with wind; 'twill take a large and weighty bar'l, to put the lid on Bill and Carl. The tax that you will have to pay won't set you back for half a day, it'll be prudent, now, and wise; cut out imported snobs and pies; blow in less staple brands of coin; for porterhouse and tenderloin, don't bet your money on the nags, spend less for rich and gaudy rags; Life's been for years one grand sweet song, we've lived in luxury so long, it may at first seem quite a strain to save a share of what we gain. But if we pickle sundry dimes we'll bless ourselves in after times, when tax collectors come around, to nail the shilling and the pound.

most progressive lodges in the state. This evening at a special meeting the lodge will give work in the first and third ranks and also open and close lodge in a contest with about 40 other lodges thruout the state.

There will be a state officer here to judge the work. This officer will visit all of the lodges entered in the contest and the lodge doing the best work will be selected to exemplify the work at the Grand Lodge meeting next fall. Last year the honors fell to Porter Lodge of White Hall. Favorite is confident of being in the running this year and it will be a big honor to put on the work at the Grand Lodge in addition to having the Grand Chancellor.

COMPARATIVE PRICES

The following has appeared in a number of papers and was given to the Journal by a Jacksonville merchant who received it from Sincere, Stern Co. of Chicago.

A merchant in a western town showed a farmer a buggy, priced at $50.00, and the farmer kicked because twenty years ago his father bought one just like it for $60.00. Then the merchant looked up the sale and found that the father had turned in 300 bushels of corn for that buggy, and he told the farmer's son to deliver to him 300 bushels of corn and he would give him:

1 $90 buggy.
1 $75 wagon.
1 $20 suit of clothes.
1 $20 dress.
1 $5 baby dress.
1 $5 crib.
1 $2 box of cigars.
1 $10 worth of sugar.
1 $10 worth of tea.
1 $100 worth of gasoline.
1 $15 worth of lubricating oil.

The total figures $365 as the value of 300 bushels of corn, and it is no less to say that the high cost of living disappeared from the farmer's mind and he bought the buggy.

Some such reckoning as this might be a good thing for those people who are "throwing fits" over the proposition to tax excess profits, with inevitable result of speedy cure.

A NOBLE WORK BY STATE ST. CHURCH LADIES.

A goodly number of Dorcas of the six circles of State street Church assembled in church parlors yesterday and devoted the day to a noble work, selling and working for the sufferers across the water.

They made 25 black dresses, collected clothing for a whole box, secured a good sum of money which they used in buying socks, getting them at anti-war prices in several instances, and did a lot of other good work. The church officials supplied coffee for lunch and a bountiful feast was enjoyed by the faithful workers who had a fine time remembering the words of their Divine Master who said "It is more blessed to give than to receive". J. S. Hackett supplied a motor to run the sewing machines and others did general things so that on the whole a goodly number of the people easily deprived of the necessities of life by a cruel army will feel the benefit of the good work by the ladies. May their example be emulated by thousands more.

OILING STREETS

W. H. Cocking had a force of men yesterday oiling the streets in South Jacksonville. Similar work has been done in the village for several years past with uniformly satisfactory results. Today Mr. Cocking will oil East College avenue from the railroad subway to Johnson street. Oiling has been done there also for several years with satisfactory results.

TWO ENTERED GUILTY PLEAS IN CIRCUIT COURT

Willis McDonald Sentenced To Jail for Thirty Days and Kenneth McCurley Sent to Reform School—Morgan Goes to Chester.

The trial of Arthur Nelson charged with criminal assault was held in the circuit court Thursday. States Attorney Robinson presented the state's case and W. N. Haigrove appeared for the defense. The case was given to the jury about 3:15 o'clock and when the Journal went to press this morning no verdict had been returned.

Willis McDonald appeared in the circuit court before Judge Jones Thursday and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of petty larceny and was sentenced to jail for thirty days. McDonald was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of burglary. It will be recalled that one night last winter he entered the Harmon home on East College avenue and made away with an overcoat and a suit case. After a somewhat thrilling pursuit he was captured by Coach W. T. Harmon.

Kenneth McCurley also appeared in court and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of forgery. He was committed to the reform school at Pontiac until discharged according to law. The finding of the jury which declared A. L. Morgan guilty of forgery was affirmed and Judge Jones sentenced Morgan to Chester penitentiary to serve until discharged according to law. The court docket was set for the coming week and includes the following cases:

Monday.
Caldwell vs. Hutson, Arthur Swain vs. Chicago & Alton, M. F. Dunlap vs. Chicago & Alton railroad.
Tuesday.
George P. Brown vs. F. G. Brown, et al.

Wednesday.
Anna Ahlquist vs. Alvin Ahlquist, divorce.

LIMIT SECOND SERIES OF CAMPS TO 15,000

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Only about 15,000 men will be trained in the second series of officers training camps to be held from August 27 to Nov. 26, Adjutant General McCain announced today. Forty thousand entered the first series of camps but the war department has reduced the number for the fall encampments in the hope of obtaining older and more experienced men.

Emphasizing the department's wish to obtain men above 31 years of age or men of special ability, General McCain said:

"Since the special object of these camps is to train men fitted to fill the more responsible positions of command, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proven ability in their various occupations. No man need apply whose record is not in all respects above reproach and who does not possess the fundamental characteristics necessary to inspire respect and confidence."

The quota allowed each state and the places at which examining officers, to whom applications should be sent will be stationed, are as follows in part:

Indiana, 448, Fort Benjamin Harrison.
Illinois, 971, Fort Sheridan.
Iowa, 355, Fort Des Moines.
Nebraska, 260, Fort Crook.
Missouri, 528, Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis.

KRONSTADT INCIDENT IN RUSSIA CLOSED

PETROGRAD, Via London, June 7.—The Kronstadt incident is closed. The local committee of soldiers and workmen's delegates has recognized the authority of the provisional government.

The local committee of the workmen's and soldiers delegates at Kronstadt decided on June 1 to assume control of the great fortress and to refuse recognition of the provisional government. The government officials were removed. The secessionists put forward a program of splitting Russia up into a great number of self-governing communities and sent missionaries out to try to persuade neighboring towns to join them. The socialist minister in the provisional cabinet, M. Tsereteli and Skobelev, went to Kronstadt from Petrograd and endeavored to persuade them to abandon their plan. The present surrender is apparently the result of their arguments.

WILL REVISE HONOR SYSTEM AT JOLIET

JOLIET, Ill., June 7.—Rioting in the Illinois State Penitentiary attributed by some officials to an "overdose of the honor system," will result in a radical revision or perhaps the abolition of honor privileges within the prison walls but the "honor farm" of the institution will remain. While 1,200 confined convicts fought with guards and troops and burned two buildings on Tuesday, 198 men virtually at liberty on the farm made no effort to escape and maintained perfect discipline.

In support of his statement that correspondence with women on the outside had done much to demoralize prison discipline, Warden Bowen made public excerpts from letters received at the prison. They were sent from women who had been put in communication with prisoners through a league organized for uplift work.

MISS ANNA BROWN IS
BRIDE OF M. W. OSBORNE

BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE CEREMONIAL SOLEMNIZED AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Wedding Uniting Two Well Known Families a Notable Event in Jacksonville Society—Details All Arranged with Thought of Grace and Beauty—Brilliant Home Reception Followed Church Service—Many Guests from Other Cities.

Grace and beauty characterized a strikingly brilliant nuptial service at Central Christian church Thursday evening when Miss Anna Pauline Brown became the bride of Mr. Marcy Woods Osborne, both of Jacksonville. The service was at 7:30 o'clock and the words of the marriage ceremony were eloquently and impressively spoken by Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of the church, before a large assemblage of invited guests. Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard gave a fine rendition on the organ of the following program:

Evening Song (Schumann).
Love's Greeting (Elgar).
Entrée Nuptiale (Rousseau).
Madrigal (Rogers).
Elevation (Rousseau).
Wedding March (Lohengrin).
Palms and ferns in profusion were used in the church decorations and the entire front of the church was a bower of green with a touch of color in the center secured by the use of two pedestal baskets filled with large bouquets of white peonies and from the handles of the basket hanging in graceful folds, were lines of tulle extending to the choir rail on either side of the pulpit.

Promptly at the hour named the bridal party entered the church, the professional being by the east aisle. Mr. William Barr Brown, acted as master of ceremonies and the groomsmen were Mr. Edward Warfield Brown, brother of the bride; Mr. Richard Y. Rowe, Mr. Wilfred Ayers, Mr. Cleon Bell and Dr. F. A. Norris. Miss Frances Hubbell was the first of the bridesmaids to appear and she was followed by Miss Ruth Henry of West Bend, Wis., a cousin of the bride; Miss Clara Lane and Miss Margaret Clampt. The gowns of the bridesmaids were of satin, with court train and not over dress and were expressive of a rainbow color scheme. Miss Hubbell being gowned in pink, Miss Henry in lavender, Miss Lane in light blue and Miss Clampt in orchid. The bridesmaids carried shower bouquets of sweet peas in rainbow shades tied with silver ribbon.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Arthur Green of Naperville, Ill., cousin of the bride. She wore a beautiful gown of canary satin with white lace overdress and satin train and carried a bouquet of roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Henry Ruth Lassiter of Fort Worth, Texas, who wore an exquisite creation of green tulle draped with tulle and silver overdress with tulle train.

Proceeding the bride was Mrs. William Barr Brown who sang the bridal chorus from Lohengrin passing the bride at the altar to a position in the pulpit platform where she continued singing until the marriage service was begun. Mrs. Brown was most becomingly gowned in white lace over flesh colored satin embroidered in roses. Her bouquet was a shower of pink roses and sweet eysium.

The bride entered on the arm of her father and was preceded by her two little cousins, Jane Conover of Springfield, and Anson Brown of Decatur, delicately attired in white, who served as flower girl and page. The bride's gown was a handsome creation of white satin trimmed in point lace and embroidered in pearls with court train. Her wedding veil was of tulle and was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried an exquisite bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

The groom accompanied by his best man, Mr. H. P. Samuel, entered by the south aisle of the church and met the bride at the altar.

In plighting the troth the beautiful ring ceremony was used and the bride was presented by her father. After the vows had been spoken the recessional took place by the west aisle the organist playing the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Wedding Reception.
An elegant wedding reception took place at the Brown home 1942 West State street immediately following the ceremony at the church. For this occasion the spacious rooms of the residence had been made especially attractive by the lavish use of spring flowers, peonies of varied hue adding their charm against a background of asparagus fern, smilax and syringa. The mantle places were banked in green foliage. The chandeliers were shaded according to the color scheme of each room, the living room being in white, the library in red, the reception hall in pink, the dining room in white and green. In the reception room was a cluster bouquet of Richmond roses.

The guests were welcomed in the living room where the bride and groom received the cordial good wishes and hearty congratulations of their friends. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, the bride and groom, Mrs. Lillian Woods King, mother of the groom; members of the wedding party, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Brown of Decatur, Mr. Arthur Green of Naperville, Mr. Lloyd Brown of Decatur, Miss Mary Wilson of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. George Conover of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. William Barr Brown of Jacksonville.

The gown worn by Mrs. Brown was of white silk net over silver cloth trimmed in silver lace. Her ornaments were pearls and diamonds. The gown of Mrs. King was white satin with black lace overdress trimmed in silver lace and jet. Her ornaments were diamonds.

Assisting in the reception of the Matthews.

In the library which was resplendent in dark red peonies and poppies Misses Dorothy Farrell, Ruth Reynolds, Lynette Brown and Frances Leonard Masters presided at a frappe bowl.

The gifts, which were very many in number and most handsome, were displayed in the east bedroom up stairs.

Refreshments were served on the spacious veranda which had been especially lighted. The dining room where the cutting of the bride's cake took place was very prettily decorated in white and green. The table centerpiece was a mound of bride's roses and swansonia, white tulle upon which was draped lines of smilax, extending from the chandelier to the four corners of the table.

Randall's orchestra stationed in the reception hall gave a delightful musical program during the hours of the reception.

Two of Jacksonville's most widely known and prominent families are united by the marriage of Miss Brown and Mr. Osborne. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown and her charming manner and grace of character have won for her a host of admiring friends. She is a graduate of the Jacksonville high school and supplemented her education here by a course in Fairmont Seminary in Washington, D. C. She is a member of the Central Christian church. Her prominence and popularity in the younger social set is well known.

The groom is the only son of Mrs. Lillian Woods King and holds the responsible position of assistant cashier of the Farrell & Co. bank. He has the same genial disposition that won for his father, the late S. D. Osborne, so many warm personal friends. He is a member of Jacksonville Lodge of Masons, Jacksonville Chapter, Knights of Pythias and the Order of Elks having been Exalted Ruler of the last named organization. In the Central Illinois Golf association he is quite well known where his skill won for him a number of handsome trophies. He is a popular young man highly esteemed. His church affiliation is with the Central Christian. His education was received at Illinois College where he graduated in the class of 1908. While in college he was a member of Sigma Pi society.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne left last evening over the Wabash for Chicago expecting to return to Jacksonville on Monday. They will spend the month of July in Waupaca, Wis., as guests at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown.

ATTENDED AD CLUBS BIG CONVENTION

J. A. Munson of Jacksonville was among those who attended the 13th annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in St. Louis. The meeting brought together delegates from all parts of the world and very prominent men had part on the program. The business men of St. Louis months ago appointed committees on entertainment and no expense was spared in making the visit of the delegates memorable. The Associated Advertising Clubs sometime ago demonstrated the force of their organization by a campaign in Chicago which brought in 300,000 members of the Red Cross. The organization is now planning for a somewhat similar campaign for the selling of liberty loan bonds and later on will undertake a plan which will result in furnishing each soldier of the U. S. who enlists in the present war a copy of the Bible.

A TORNADO STORY

L. O. Vaughn, who recently went to Indiana, sent a clipping to a Jacksonville friend taken from the Indianapolis News. This clipping tells of a tornado letter found by Harry Johnson, a farmer living near New Augusta in central Indiana. This letter, which was addressed to B. P. Andrews & Co. of Charleston, had evidently been blown there by the tornado which did so much damage at Charleston and Mattoon. It is estimated that the letter must have been blown a distance of 120 miles. F. J. Andrews of this city is a partner in the Andrews firm at Charleston.

SEWED FOR RED CROSS.

The Ladies Aid society of Westminster church held an all day sewing at the home of Mrs. G. C. Guthrie Thursday. The work was for the benefit of the Red Cross society.

AN INTERESTING PICTURE

William Cocking brought to the Journal office yesterday a picture of flood conditions on the Maysville bottom between the Collins hill and the bridge. It was on that road that so much money was spent and the track was raised high enough, the engineers thought, to avoid high water but they were mistaken as a large part of the track between the points named was overflowed. The fact is partly owing to the straightening of the creek higher up so that the water pours down there faster than would be the case otherwise. Had they gone into a drainage scheme it would have been better for them at this time. One field of wheat was six feet under water.

WALKS IN CENTRAL PARK

Editor of The Journal:

The reasons given by members of the Park Board for laying walks in Central Park at this time, before the Soldier's Monument is erected (as stated in the Journal of June 6th) are not satisfactory to any taxpayers of this city with whom I have conversed upon the subject. From that statement it appears that the Park Board knew at the time the contract for the walks was let that the question of locating the monument in the center of the Park was before the City Council and undetermined; and it would seem a matter of great presumption on their part to assume that the monument would not be located there.

Then in order "that there may not be any patchwork about it," they decided to leave in the center a circle sixty feet in diameter for the monument, around the inside of which there is to be a walk ten feet in width, and a grass plat inside the walk—another piece of presumption. How does the Park Board know what space will be required for the monument, or what its surroundings should be? No plans have as yet been submitted. And how is the Board to avoid "patchwork" when a monument weighing many tons is moved over its walks and has crushed them? Persons who have had experience in such matters consider damage to the walks inevitable. If a section of the walk is removed, its replacement will be "patchwork."

It would appear that a majority of the Park Board (not all of its members) have adopted the attitude of "the public be damned," that they care little for the old soldiers' wishes; that they are making the work of erecting the monument as difficult as possible, and are doing all in their power to scatter the people's money in a hasty and reckless manner.

BANKS ARRANGE TO TAKE LIBERTY BONDS

Federal Government's Assignment to This County is $456,165.33—People Here Who Invest in Bonds Should Buy Thru Banks.

The banks of Morgan county have subscribed for liberty loan bonds to the extent of $456,165.33, the amount of which the government allotted to this county. This means that the sum mentioned is the allotment for the banks, firms or individuals of this county. Local bankers have entered on this subject a number of times recently and the allotment for each bank was determined in accordance with the deposits. Using this as a basis it will be necessary for the Jacksonville banks to take more than $310,000 of the total allotted to the county. As each county in the state is expected to take care of a certain amount of the bonds as a matter of loyalty to the home community every person who wishes to invest in the bonds should make a purchase thru a home bank. Purchases of bonds outside Morgan county will not count on Morgan's allotment. The bonds are of such denomination that they meet the needs of all classes of investors.

The bonds draw 3½ per cent interest and the particular attractiveness is due to the fact that they are exempt from taxation. A great deal of stress has been laid upon the duty that citizens owe the country to subscribe for these liberty loan bonds and with equal truth a great deal might be said about the attractiveness of the bonds as an investment.

The Bankers' Statement.
The American Bankers Association has made the following statement urging the buying of Liberty bonds:
We are in this war and we can't get out without getting beaten badly or winning conclusively. It is a finish fight.

When a nation goes into a finish fight with the tremendously powerful Central European powers it means to win or losing, to pay the war debts of a victorious Germany. A nice mess we shall be in should the submarine starve out England, should Russia conclude a separate peace and release three million veterans from the eastern front, and should France, thus exposed, utterly collapse. The Central Powers would then release France and England and our crushed trade only on condition that the United States raise huge levies as war indemnities to pay Germany's huge debts.

It doesn't matter how this situation came about. The thing now to do is to prevent a terrible misadventure from overtaking us. Americans want peace. We can have peace now only in one of two ways, by victory or defeat.

We have to pay huge sums as the price of peace. We will pay these sums to ourselves in the form of national loans, or we will pay them to the Central Powers in the form of war levies in case our allies are defeated and our trade is posted for redemption only on Germany's terms.

A Ruthless Enemy
When we start out to war with the ruthless militarism of Germany, we had better not start out empty-handed. Every man, woman and child in the United States has a formidable enemy confronting him or her, a ruthless enemy whose path we have crossed, a trained, efficient, experienced, desperate and vastly powerful enemy. It is going to take every dollar we can spare to defeat this Dragon.

The American who desires to lie down after having invited Germany to crush him will best do so by avoiding his obligation to subscribe to the Liberty Loan.

In this way he can see to it that our soldiers shall lack food, clothing, equipment and ammunition to just that degree. In this way he can ensure the stagnation of domestic industry and his own loss. In this way he can undermine the prestige of the United States and of government by democracy for which this nation stands.

What American wishes himself thus labeled? None. It is the solemn duty of every man to invest $50 of $100 or $500 in a Liberty Loan bond, an interest bearing gold bond, a readily convertible bond, a first mortgage on the United States, and to pay for it out of his additional savings.

COACH HARMON HERE FROM TRAINING CAMP

Men at Ft. Sheridan are Given Rigorous Work Each Day—Commissioners Dependent on Showing Made

Coach W. T. Harmon spent Thursday in the city on business and visit relatives and friends. Mr. Harmon was called here to testify in the case of Willis McDonald, charged with burglary and larceny.

It will be remembered that one night last winter Coach Harmon surprised McDonald while he was stealing a hand bag off of the back porch of the Harmon residence. Mr. Harmon, the clad only in his pajamas and barefooted, chased McDonald thru the streets, knocked him down and sat upon him until the police came.

The coach is enthusiastic about his work in the officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan. Harmon has been an athlete all his life and his active work since leaving school in coaching, football, track, baseball and basketball teams has kept him in the pink of condition. In addition to this he had two years experience as second lieutenant of Company B so that the work, strenuous as it is, has not proved too much for the coach.

All men are required to do 48 hours of work during the week, Harmon said. This is a little over eight hours a day for there is a half day of each Saturday afternoon. The work consists of drills, instruction in army tactics and modern military maneuvers and in fact everything that goes to make up the knowledge required of men to officer a modern army.

The present camp will break up about Aug. 18. The men will then be given examinations for commissions. The rank of a commission will depend largely upon the grade of work done by the men while in training. It is the opinion of Mr. Harmon that the officers in charge will have a pretty good line on the ability of the men long before the examinations are held. The men who are given commissions probably will be assigned immediately to various units to begin the training of the recruits for the new army, which will start about Sept. 1.

In the same company with Harmon are Stuart Russel and Leonard P. Wood both of this city. Other Jacksonville men at the camp are Fred K. Stewart, Fred Bray and Paul Strawn, who they are in other organizations.

Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain across your back. It is just making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. Why "Anuric" is an INSURANCE Against Sudden Death.

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10 cents for sample package of his new discovery, "Anuric." Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anuric" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar; besides being absolutely harmless it is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Being so many times more active than lithia, it clears the heart valves of any sandy substances which may clog them and checks the degeneration of the blood-vessels, as well as regulating blood pressure. "Anuric" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anuric" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

STRENGTH AND BEAUTY
Come with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This is a blood cleanser and alternative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to manufacture rich red blood which feeds the heart, nerves, brain and organs of the body. The organs work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and strenuous instead of tired, weak and faint.

SUGGEST THAT FREIGHT RATES BE CONSIDERED

Chamber of Commerce Directors Adopted Resolution At Special Meeting Held Thursday Afternoon.

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting held Thursday afternoon adopted a resolution indicating that a re-adjustment of freight rates is to be expected and suggesting that early action is advisable. This resolution was introduced by Dr. J. R. Harker and was seconded by F. J. Andrews. Copies of the resolution will be forwarded to the interstate commerce commission now in session in Washington and to the utility commission which will meet in Springfield the coming week to consider the proposed increase of freight rates.

The resolution as adopted was in language as follows: "Because of the increased cost to the railroads of wages and materials, it would seem that there ought to be a re-adjustment of freight rates, so as to meet the changed conditions. We believe that this matter ought to have the most serious attention of the interstate commerce commission and the Illinois State Public Utilities Commission, and we respectfully urge these commissions to act as speedily as possible a solution of these matters, and such re-adjustment or increase of rates as may seem reasonable and fair to all parties concerned."

REGISTRATION FIGURES FOR WHITE HALL

Total Number Registering Was 287—State Aid Road Between White Hall and Roodhouse Receives Final Touches—Greene County Personal Mention.

White Hall, Ill., June 7.—There was a total registration of 287 at White Hall on Tuesday, and very little anti-conscription sentiment developed. The three precincts showed the following totals: First, 109; second, 81; third, 97. Those making no exception to military service totaled 121, divided as follows: First precinct, 42; second, 42; third, 37. The total registration for the county is approximately 1,800.

R. G. Smith, superintendent of the White Hall schools has completed a school census of the district, and it shows that the city of White Hall has a population of 2,811. There are 1,379 males and 1,432 females in the city.

L. B. Ballow, chairman of the Decoration Day executive committee, reports that the sum of only $61.99 was expended on this year's event, and that this amount has been collected for the purpose of paying all bills without leaving a surplus on hand for becoming lost sight of and possibly devoted to other purposes in the future if ever such surplus funds ever come to light. Mr. Ballow is aware that the experience of White Hall is not unlike that of other towns in that surplus funds accumulating from public events aggregates a large sum in nearly every town where there is any public activity, and that a large portion of such funds become either lost or misappropriated.

The state aid road between White Hall and Roodhouse is closed to traffic for the final touches and the application of oil. Recently the state sent two oiling machines to White Hall, new ones, and they were taken to the scene of operations last week. Rain has interfered with the progress of the work, but with the settled and warm weather a grand thoroughfare between White Hall and Roodhouse will soon be a reality.

Willie Dillman is the guest of Ernest and Harold Pearce in Galesburg.

Miss Hazel Grant was up from St. Louis for a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Grant.

L. B. Jones, a former business man of White Hall, was here this week from Missouri.

Miss Marie Callans, daughter of William Callans and a recent graduate of the White Hall high school, has been employed to teach the next term of the McCracken school in Scott county, near Manchester.

Mrs. Nellie McKenzie and daughter started on their return to Pine Bluff, Ark., Wednesday, after a sojourn at the Kendall home. Mrs. McKenzie is a daughter of the late Frank Kendall, a native of White Hall, who became a lumber king in Arkansas, and at his death a few years ago his remains were brought here for burial.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Foreman and Post Commander Allen Lorton are attending the sessions of the G. A. R. state encampment at Bloomington this week. R. B. Pearce was scheduled to go up for the parade on Thursday in company with J. E. Symons of Roodhouse. The regular delegate of the local post F. M. Winters failed to attend.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

New York, June 7.—The feast of Corpus Christi was commemorated today with special services in all of the Catholic churches throughout the metropolis. The feast commemorates the institution of the holy Eucharist. Juliana, a nun of Liege, Belgium, first conceived the idea of the ceremony being made a special observance, and was able to persuade Urban IV to proclaim it as such and set aside one day each year for the purpose. This was in 1264, and with the exception of two or three lapses under the Pope following has since been attended with strict observance every year. In Spain, Austria, and other Catholic countries Corpus Christi is one of the great fete days of the year. It is not only a day of religious observance, but it is a legal holiday as well.

A large number gathered at the appointed hour and all repaired to the allotted place and proceeded to have a good time after the most approved style. Everybody was prepared to enjoy the occasion to the full and they succeeded. The worthy pastor, Rev. J. G. Kuppfer, presided at the rendering of the program and in addition there were games, off hand contests and all sorts of fun among the young people.

The baskets were opened at noon and the appetites of the young people as well as old, sharpened by exercise in the open air, added the best sauce to the good things provided. In addition the Ladies' Aid society had a refreshment stand where they served sandwiches and coffee and the Luther Walther circle sold ice cream and other goodies. During the day the following program was rendered:

Lemons Do Whiten!

Try This on Face,
Neck, Arms, Hands

The lemon juice massage indulged in once or twice each day means a little time and trouble, girls, but what of the splendid results? A skin bleached beautifully white, a complexion with the bloom of a peach,
a softening of those lines of care!
In fact, a skin eloquent of nature's purity and hands white, soft and full of charm.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When massaged daily into the face, neck, arms and hands it should naturally help to whiten, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Pittsburgh June 7.—Hans Wagner made his first appearance of the season with Pittsburgh today, playing first base, but poor pitching by Mamaux caused the home team to lose, 5 to 3, to Brooklyn.

The veteran shortstop in four times up was thrown out three times by the second baseman, but singled the fourth time, driving in a run and was out at second, trying to stretch his hit into a double. The league champion hit Mamaux hard in the first three innings after which he was replaced by Grimes who later gave way to Carlson.

GOVERNMENT REPORT
AWAITED WITH INTEREST

Leading Grain Authorities Confident
It Will Be in Sharp Contrast With Those Made in April and May—Crop Situation Matter of Vital Importance

New York, June 7.—Seldom has a Government crop report been awaited with keener public interest than that scheduled to be issued tomorrow by the Department of Agriculture at Washington. The fact that the United States will be called upon during the coming year to feed not only her own people but the peoples of a large part of the world besides has made the crop situation a matter of vital importance, not only as regards the welfare and prosperity of the nation but also as a factor in the winning of the war.

Leading authorities on the New York Stock Produce Exchange and at various other grain centers are confident of a Government grain report tomorrow that will be in sharp contrast with those made in April and May, which had much to do with the panic among consumers over the question of flour and other foodstuff supplies.

Harvesting Under Way
The last Government report placed the winter wheat crop prospect at 356,000,000 bushels. In the interim there have been beneficial rains over the entire wheat-producing section, and now harvesting is well under way in the early districts of Texas. With a few more weeks of favorable weather cutting of winter wheat will be general.

It is considered not improbable that the winter wheat outturn will finally rest above 420,000,000 bushels, as against 482,000,000 last year. The more optimistic estimates have been affected recently by the statement of the Secretary of the Kansas Agricultural Bureau, that Kansas would have only 40,000,000 bushels. Criticism soon developed because of this estimate. Some of the crop experts who have traveled the grain belt for many years believe that the figures will be much higher for the ordinarily banner wheat-raising state. Their estimates on the Kansas Crop, based on reports from all sections, place it at from 65,000,000 to 70,000,000 bushels.

May Exceed Last Year's Crop
The spring wheat crop has started in excellent shape, according to reports from trustworthy sources.
Most advisers say that the area may reach 19,000,000 acres against 17, 500,000 last year. It is figured by grain authorities that with a good growing season there can easily be 325,000,000 bushels of spring wheat this season against the failure last year of 178,000,000 bushels, and a record crop in 1915 of 352,000,000 bushels. Thus, the combined winter and spring wheat crops may exceed the result of last season by 100, 000,000 bushels.

Equally important are the bright prospects for the corn and oats crop.
Much of the area that was abandoned in the winter wheat states has been replanted to corn and oats, and the south is producing liberally of these grains, mainly thru its desire to respond to the appeal of President Wilson for the enlargement of foodstuff crops.

Soil Conditions Good
The corn area this year may approximate 120,000,000 acres, according to the estimates of the experts. The record area has been 197,000,000 acres in 1912, when the record crop was 3,125,000,000 bushels. Inasmuch as the soil conditions are exceptionally good at present, it is figured that the immense area of corn this year may give more than 3,300,000,000 bushels, against 2,583,000,000 last year.

Oats are reported flourishing, and the Government report tomorrow may indicate a crop not close to 1, 000,000,000 bushels, against 1,252, 000,000 bushels a year ago. The oats are also in good condition, proportions with moisture and temperature conditions excellent up to the present time.

The rye crop also promises to reach record proportions this year, and private reports have suggested an outturn of better than the 60,000, 000 bushels estimated last month, against 47,000,000 bushels last year.

Floyd and Miss Della Goodpasture of the northwest part of the county rode to the city in their Maxwell car yesterday.

Use "Gets-It," Lift

Corn Right Off

Shrivels, Loosens—and It's Gone!

Just like taking the lid off—that's how easy you can lift a corn off your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, "Gets-It."
Hunt the wide world over and you'll find nothing so magic, simple and easy as "Gets-It." You folks who have wrung your toes in bandages to look like a corn, who have used salves that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would shift from their place and never "get" the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors, and perhaps made them bleed—just quit these old and painful ways and try "Gets-It" just once. You put 2 or 3 drops on, and it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again. The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, shriveling death, it loosens from your toe, and off it comes. "Gets-It" is the best selling corn remedy in the world today.

There's none other as good.

"Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25¢ a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Armstrong's drug store, Con-

SPEAKER SHANNON AT G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Address Before Bloomington Gathering Thursday Dealt with Work Accomplished by Veterans Since Ended—Heroism of '60s Is Inspiration to Youth of Today.

Bloomington, Ill., June 7.—Quoting figures to prove that Chicago alone has a population greater by $90,000 than the entire state of Illinois possessed at the time of the Civil war, and that if Illinois should furnish proportionally as many soldiers for the 1917 war as for the war of 1860, a host numbering 800,000 would march forth, David L. Shanahan, speaker of the Illinois house of representatives, in an address here tonight before the annual encampment of the Illinois department of the G. A. R. praised the heroism of the veterans and prophesied that the valor of the youth of today would shine through the ages.

"During the four years of the Civil war, Illinois furnished to the federal armies 255,057 men," said Mr. Shanahan. "There were 151 regiments of infantry, seventeen regiments of cavalry and nine independent batteries, and the ratio of troops furnished to population was fifteen per cent."

"What would be the number of that ratio which Illinois could today furnish to the nation? It would be more than 800,000 men, and the amount of money that could be raised in Chicago and other cities can hardly be estimated."

Speaker Shanahan rehearsed incidents of leadership and bravery of Illinois men in the Civil war and recalled the list of Illinois generals and lesser officers who are illustrious in the annals of the nation.

The address deals with the work accomplished by the Grand Army of the Republic when days of actual fighting were over and there were new tasks of peace. "The amount of charitable and relief work which has been done by the G. A. R. and its auxiliary organizations cannot be estimated," said the speaker.

"Looking back over the years, we linger with mournful pride upon the achievements of the heroes of the sixties. We look forward with faith and confidence that the lessons of self sacrifice and patriotism taught by them may spring forth again in their sons and grandsons in this present national crisis."

"Life has no more thrilling spectacle than a company—a regiment of young, determined, ardent soldiers filled with the divine fire of patriotism, love of home and country. Nothing is more sacred than the war-scarred veteran, the crutch or the empty sleeve. The inspiration of painter and sculptor only can give them their desert of glory."

Addressing the veterans, Speaker Shanahan said the men of the present age would be inspired by their lives to deeds of heroism.

"The nation has not, since the days when you sprang to her defense, faced such perils as she does today," said Mr. Shanahan. "But her sons will protect her now as you did in those days, and will bear tidings of freedom and equality to all parts of the world. They will go forth consecrated by the prayers of the American people to proclaim from mountain top and valley and across the seas that by Americans for American ideals, the dark regions of earth shall see the light of true democracy and liberty."

"Tanlac's Best Medicine In the World" Local Man Avers

"Tanlac is the best medicine in the world today."

This firm, convincing statement was made on June 2 by Harry Wells, 621 South Fayette street, brick mason and one of Jacksonville's best known residents. Mr. Wells has been a resident of this city practically all of his life and he is well known and highly respected by everyone.

"I began having trouble with my stomach about a year ago," he continued. "My liver was sluggish, too, and caused me great annoyance. Gas would build up in my stomach after meals and I'd usually feel bloated. Pains often came in my stomach. I was very nervous and could hardly sleep at night."

"Well sir, I think no one will continue to doubt Tanlac's merits after I say that of dozens of medicines I have tried Tanlac is the only one that ever helped me and it has entirely relieved my troubles. My stomach is in fine condition now, the gas formations, bloating and pains in my stomach having ceased to occur. My liver is more active, too. I'm not nervous now and can sleep fine at night. In short, I'm better every way, since using Tanlac."

Tanlac is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's; and in White Hall at the City Drug store—Adv.

"Resolved, That we have lost in her a kind and true hearted companion, one whose every effort seemed to be to make others happy."

JOHN SWEENEY WITH MEDICAL UNIT

D. E. Sweeney has received a letter from his son John Sweeney telling of his enlistment in the Detroit College of Medicine Unit, at Detroit, Mich. The unit is composed of 150 men and 65 training nurses.

In his letter Mr. Sweeney said that he knew he would be drafted and he did not want that to happen so he took time by the forelock and enlisted. He says that the unit is already in training and after a period of work at Fort Wayne, will go to France and establish a base hospital behind the firing line.

Mr. Sweeney has had considerable military experience and Capt. McGraw of the unit has selected him as one of the men to assist in the drilling of the men. The company is composed mostly of medical students. There are, however, successful business men from every walk of life including a couple of millionaires' sons. The personnel of the unit is high and Mr. Sweeney is well pleased with his work.

He says that it is probable that the unit will leave for France by July, tho it is not known just when it will be sent. The prevailing opinion is that they will be in France not later than September. He expects to be able to get home for a visit before going across the water. Mr. Sweeney graduated from the high school and then took a course of law at the University of Michigan. Later he did newspaper work in Detroit and recently has been associated with the legal department of the Cadillac automobile company.

Clarence Hopkins of Litterberry was a Jacksonville business visitor yesterday.

FARM NOTES

Save Those Ewe Lambs

Save every lamb ewe possible for breeding is the urgent message the Department of Agriculture is sending to sheep owners. Market for slaughter only those being absolutely worthless for breeding stock. There is a strong demand among farmers for breeding stock and owners of ewe lambs should have no trouble finding a breeding market for them through county agents or the state agricultural colleges. Sheep specialists of the Department believe that although prices for breeding stock now are high, those who start production of wool and mutton on a moderate scale will have no cause to regret purchasing breeding stock at present figures.

Much Corn to Be Replanted

As a result of the recent storm and heavy rains a considerable amount of Morgan county corn will be replanted. A. L. French said yesterday that today he would start two pulverizers and a corn planter in one of his fields.

"Part of the corn was washed out and part was beaten into the ground," said Mr. French, "as a result of the very heavy rain we had recently in the Chapin neighborhood. On looking over a field it seemed to me that there was about half a stand and so the best course is to disc and replant. This is a little later than I usually like to plant corn but the season has been such that there has been no particular advantage in having the seed in the ground. There is a considerable acreage of corn in the west part of the county which has not been planted at all this spring because of weather conditions. There are a few fields which have not even been plowed but with favorable weather for a few days there will be great activity on the farms and early the coming week it will be safe to say that practically every acre of Morgan county corn land has been planted."

Felix E. Farrell said yesterday that reports from a number of farmers in the Alexander and Orleans neighborhood indicated that replanting of many corn fields is necessary. This work in most cases is occasioned by the fact that the heavy rains washed out portions of the fields and so left a stand which could only be rated at fifty per cent.

Economical Cattle Feeding

Economical cattle feeding will be the order of the day next winter even more so that it was in the season just past. We will get together this summer actual figures from a number of Farm Bureau members who are very successful each year in wintering their cattle cheaply and well. We have found that it costs some of the members twice as much as others to winter their cattle. This means that some cattle are making money as they should and that others are either barely meeting expenses or are actually losing money. We feed cattle not for their looks, but for profit. At present prices cattle can still be fed either for beef or milk and make money. Every Farm Bureau member will have his attention called repeatedly to the methods which have proven successful.

Beans and Onions

Several unique lines of farm enterprises have been started this season on Tazewell County farms because of the food scarcity and the high prices of various products. S. A. Hayward of Tremont has a big lot in town completely occupied with onions. About 12 bushels of sets were set out there this spring and the young onions are making a great growth for it is very rich ground. He has also made a careful study of beans production and is going in to that. Robert E. Terhune of Parkland, B. G. Budke of Manito and several other Farm Bureau members are also raising some beans. In Spring Lake township there are also 10 demonstrations with soy beans in comparison with cow peas. These have been started because of several distinct advantages of soy beans for soil improvement under Tazewell county conditions. The other day I saw a large share of the men who are making these trials and found that they were getting the beans put in under the very best of conditions.

Some Hog This

To Robert Rans, living southwest of the city belongs the credit of selling a hog which weighed 810 pounds. The animal was sold to Walter Fearneyhough and the purchase price was $192.20. This is the largest amount on record this season for a sale of one animal on a pound basis.

Good Returns From Sheep

The Franklin Times gives the following facts about returns from sheep owned by people in the Franklin vicinity. The present prices of both sheep and wool are so high that farmers who made purchases last fall or who have raised sheep are making good money.

This is the Times story: Geo. P. Boulware sold $423.77 worth of wool from a flock of 67 sheep to M. L. Anderson last week, which it will be noted is over $3.60 per head for the flock. Some of the sheep sheared over 18 pounds of wool and the entire 67 fleeces weighed 770 1/2 pounds. Mr. Boulware sold 40 head of the sheep this week for $12.00 per cwt. He bought them last fall at $c a pound.

Ed G. Evans sold Anderson 38 fleeces weighing 444 pounds at 55c, receiving $255.20, or better than $6.71 per head. Chas. N. Wyatt seems to be entitled to the banner for individual returns from his flock, delivering 10 fleeces to Anderson Monday which brought him $79.80 or $7.98 for each fleece, and he has the sheep left.

Mr. Anderson has been buying wool from farmers of the community for some time, getting over 400 fleeces in all. He shipped out a ton last Friday.
